!!!NEW!!! NOVA RANGE

Nova first aid kits are fully HSE compliant first aid kits. They are ideal for locations where HSE regulations must be met at minimum cost whilst retaining high quality contents. With a lightweight, corrugated plastic box, Nova kits use 80% less polypropylene than standard first aid boxes. This ensures that the kits are more environmentally friendly when compared to standard kits and costs can be kept low.

Nova first aid kits are ideal for industrial environments such as factories and construction sites. In addition, Nova provides a very low cost alternative for customers in other sectors such as occupational health and retail.
